

Lang's gallery

These feature pages are reserved for displaying the work of emerging and developing Australian artists; as well as other unknowns whose efforts may provide interest for our readers.

ARTIST'S PALETTE magazine seeks to showcase the works of talented Australians producing art at a whole range of skill levels, whether they are accomplished creative people with a long history of achievements or beginners (of all ages) striving to build their identities and reach their particular artistic goals.

This 'Gallery' segment provides a place to display pictures by people who may not have the means or the opportunity to be extensively featured in our magazine. Submissions are sought from such people for future Issues. Submissions are sought from such people for future Issues. This month I am pleased to display the work of another three enthusiastic people.

DI TARRANT
The beautiful south coast region of New South Wales is home to this lady who enjoys interaction with other artists while developing her own art practice at Tura Beach. New ideas are always on her agenda, and she draws strong influence from nautical themes. She loves the powerful colours of the sea and describes her artistic career as 'a wonderful journey'.

MONICA BURROWS
This Queensland artist has been painting professionally for ten years. She lives with her husband at Hervey Bay and maintains that a common theme in all her work is colour. "Colour makes people feel happy," says Monica. "And if you can inject some humour as well, that is even better!" Many of her colourful pictures have been purchased by eager buyers.

ERIC A. DAVIES

Home of the nation's capital, the Australian Capital Territory is also home to a budding artist with a strong interest in Natural History. As a member of the Canberra Art Workshop, Eric A. Davies enjoys walking while gaining inspiration for his paintings and drawings. He views art as a means of enjoying what he is doing and 'being himself'.

If you are a developing artist and would like to see your own work in Lang's Gallery, please send me some good quality colour photographs of the painting/s you want to display in the magazine. If you would like to, you may include a photograph of yourself to accompany the picture/s of your art. Please also supply a brief written description of your background, your creative motivation, and your artistic aspirations.
